EASTSIDE HIGH SCHOOL

BUTLER, INDIANA

OUR THEME--UNITED

"United" has been chosen as the theme of our book because of the consolidation of the Riverdale and Butler schools to form the Eastside High School. We will try to present this theme in pictures and copy throughout the book.

BUTLER, INDIANA*

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent, Mr. Ernest Zeller

Mr. Ernest Zeller, superintendent of the DeKalb County Eastern Community School District, has had one of the most important jobs in the school organization for the past two years. It has been his responsibility to see that the Riverdale and Butler schools have been smoothly combined to form the East-side High School. In this task he has been successful.

Besides working with the School Board, he also enforces the rules and policies of the Indiana State Board of Education as well as those of the North Central Association.

Mrs. Helen Houlton

Familiar to students in Butler Elementary School and the Eastside High School is Mr. Zeller's secretary, Helen Houlton. During the past years, Helen has become a very important part of our school system. She keeps both the School Board and has proved to be efficient in all phases of office work. It would be difficult to match her ability or to find one that is more accommodating.

Eastside's principal, Mr. Kent Myers, has had one of the most important jobs in the school for he has all the problems of a busy company executive and more. Besides the usual problems of a business, Mr. Myers faces headaches in scheduling classes, maintaining discipline, and acting as a mediator between pupils and teachers. He is never too busy to help a pupil with a problem and has a friendly smile for everyone. We are indeed lucky to have a principal like Mr. Myers.

Principal, Mr. Kent Myers

Gwyn Kandel

As we enter Mr. Myer's office, Gwyn Kandel is the first person to greet us. No matter what is our problem, Gwyn is always there with her friendly smile and familiar laugh, ready to lend a helping hand.

As Mr. Myer's secretary, Gwyn has the big responsibility of keeping accurate school activities accounts.

The Senior Class is nearing the time when they will be required to take an active part in the world. After twelve years, they will finally assume this role. Some will go directly to vocations, some to the military service, and others to college. They are looking to success.

In their final year the Seniors were very active. They sold cider, put on a paper drive, had a bake sale, a car wash and a dance. With consolidation of the Riverdale and Butler Schools the class treasury was sufficient to enable them to go on their Senior trip to Washington D.C. and New York. This climaxed an active and enjoyable, final year.

SCHOOL SERVICE WORKERS

Cafeteria

Eleanor Plunik, Glendoline Ginder, and Dolores Miller.

The School Cafeteria Lunch time is a rushed but pleasant period for the high school and junior high school students who walk to the cafetorium in the elementary building and file, in a seemingly endless line, past the cafeteria workers who serve them with a smile.

These ladies also serve for many other school functions.

School Service Workers
No one is more important to the school than those who keep it comfortable and clean. Too, they are ready to help whenever they are needed.

Otis Gall, who has worked as janitor for nearly fifteen years, is planning to retire this year.

ACTIVITIES

TEMPORARY STUDENT COUNCIL

Left to right: Shari Kaiser, Kay Rediger, Ken Keller, Tom Wasson, Jerry Hudson, Dan Kessler, Rick Parker; Advisor, Mr. Wilder.

The Eastside Student Councils, both temporary and regular, faced many problems, but with the help of their Advisor, Mr. Wilder, they were equal to the challenging task.

The temporary Student Council members were selected from each class of the Riverdale and Butler schools. This group drew up the constitution under which the Student Council now operates.

The preamble to the constitution sums up the purpose of the Student Council. It states:

We, the students of Eastside High School, in order to provide for student participation in school government, establish better understanding between faculty and students, afford training in citizenship, and insure sincere respect for law and order, do hereby establish and ordain this constitution for student government in Eastside High School.

REGULAR STUDENT COUNCIL

STANDING: Merle Holden, Mike Hudson, Joan Vinson, Karen Thimlar, Evelyn Hertenstine, Betty Ferguson, Larry Walters, Jane Burkmire, Hobart Griffin, Ivan Griffin, Steve Houser.

No group is more pressed for time than the annual staff. Deadlines seem to come too quickly, and unexpected developments are always waiting ahead. Writing, typing, selling, planning, and picture taking make the time fly for the staff members who spend many free hours during the year working to prepare the Easterner; however, when it is all over, they have the pride of accomplishment.

BLAZER STAFF

The Blazer has done a fine job of informing the students and faculty concerning happenings of the school. Its tireless staff of ten were seen working at their typewriters, doing interviews, or checking on facts.

The staff also had the responsibility of writing the weekly Eastside High happenings for the Saint Joe News and the Butler Record Herald.

SEASON STORY

The past season over-all the Eastside Blazers baseball team won twenty games in twenty-one starts for the best record in this area and certainly one of the best in the entire state.

The B's started their season way back on June 14 at Orland, where they handed Orland a surprising 14-1 defeat behind the 4-hit pitching of Dave Haberkorn and the hitting of Lloyd Beard and Jack Bercaw.

Three days later, the Eastsiders downed Hamilton 8-3 at Hamilton, with Terry Wilson pitching a 4-hitter and striking out 11, while "Red" Walter and Jim Reinlehl supplied the hitting. So it was the rest of the summer as the Flames ran their record to 10-0 including exhibition wins over Hicksville and Kendallville to give them the regular season championship.

Three straight wins gave the B's their trophy for the after-season play off and made their record 13-0.

The streak finally ended on a cold windy day at Leo when the seven Blazer errors helped Leo to an 8-7 win in 9 innings. The B's quickly got back on the right track as they opened the fall league play with a 16-0 walloping of Ashely at Ashely and followed with a 9-6 victory over S alem Center.

Wins over Orland, Hamilton, and Waterloo followed to give the Blazers a 5-0 record for the regular season championship and an 18-1 over-all record. Full of confidence, the locals knocked off Salem Center 7-2 at Eastside, and then won their final game of 1963 and the play-off with a 6-4 win over Orland at Orland.

Eastside was very fortunate in securing the services of Mr. James Roush as varsity basketball coach and athletic director. Under his guidance, the team has improved rapidly and has had a very successful season. With fifteen years of coaching experience to help him, Mr. Roush has produced a team that has been an honor to the school, both off and on the basketball floor.

FEATURES

First attendant, Nancy Casebere; escort, Randy Reinhart; Queen, Marynelle Baker; her escort, Gene Sible; second attendant, Carol Tustison; escort, Dennis Helbert.

Gene watches Marynelle--an anxious candidate.

All eyes are on Marnelle--a gracious queen.

MARYNELLE BAKER
As chorus candidate, Miss Marynelle Baker was chosen the 1963-'64 Homecoming Queen. Her chief interests include sports and music. She is now acting as varsity cheerleader. Her musical interests are extremely well-developed. She began her study of the piano ten years ago under Mrs. Gray and continued under Mrs. Frisbee. She is presently engaged in teaching piano which provides excellent experience, as she intends to further her study of music. Her hobbies include baking, horseback riding, singing, and roller skating.

"Me!" exclaims Marynelle, as she takes Gene's arm when the announcement is made.

As emcee, Dave Fisher, looks on, retiring queen, Maria Gongales, rests the robe of royalty on Marynelle's shoulders.

A NEW QUEEN

Queen Marynelle relaxes on her throne. On her right is Nancy Casebere, first attendant, and on her left is Carol Tustison, second attendant.

Retiring queen, Maria Gonzales is escorted across the gym floor by Keith Sholl.

Maria rests on the throne which she later relinquishes.

CANDIDATES

Homecoming Queen candidates, Ellen Sebert, Mary Smith, Joan Vinson, Nancy Casebere, Sunnie Miller, and Carol Wellendorf.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming is an annual event at Eastside High. It primarily involves the crowning of a new queen; however, there is more to it than just that.

There are the pep rallies which ignite school spirit, the lightning action of the game itself, the return of alumnae to see their alma mater, and its present generation of fun, fads, and friends, and the beautiful dance over which the new queen reigns. Homecoming is a time for gay festivities, occurring at present, acknowledging the past, and greeting the future.

The escorts join the Pep Club during a break in the homecoming festivities.

AND ESCORTS

Homecoming Queen candidates; Janet Kelly, Glenda Sible, Vera Smethers, Carol Tustison, and Marynelle Baker.

MISS EASTSIDE

CHERYL BOWMAN

As honor student at Eastside, Cheryl spends much time on her school work. Here, she brushes up on an assignment between classes as she waits to talk to Mr. Johnston about her future education.

Cheryl is a talented girl. She sings and plays both the piano and the clarinet. Needless to say, music is one of her favorite hobbies.

TYPICAL TALENTED = TEEN-AGER

Cheryl, a Senior, greets her friends with a warm smile as they visit her home. Cheryl enjoys being with her classmates, but confides that she also likes the family life at 414 North Broadway.

A truly typical teenager, Cheryl likes to cuddle up with her stuffed animals and read about her favorite movie and television stars.

Our stars and stripes.

Our slide to safety.

WE SEE THEM DAILY

The highest point of education at Eastside.

The fountain for youth.

FADS 'N' FASHIONS

Purses were big and flat . . .

Five fashionable Freshmen--Judy, Jackie, Pam, Nan, and Anita.

. . . but feet were bigger and flatter.

The sweater set--Dave, Dave, Bob, John, and Phil.

AT EASTSIDE

THE SENIOR SCENE

What's new, Steve?

Larry's "royal exit."

Dave--"SERIOUS?!"

Mike, Susie, and Joan will now testify, "Merle sleeps on the job."

Ron, Mike, Dick, and Randy--TREASON INCORPORATED.

KEYNOTES

Chuck Smith, Jim Rienoehl, Terry Ulm, Craig Myers, Maria Gonzalas, Patricia Coburn, Kathy Myer, Ellen Sebert, Dennis Allen, MaryNelle Baker.

The Keynotes are a select group of chorus members who have sung their way to popularity almost overnight. People really enjoy listening to them, and the Keynotes really enjoy singing.

A CONVOCATION AND

A trio composed of Kathy Myer, Jim Rienohl, and Maria Gonzalas sang at convocation centered around music.

Chuck Smith sang an excellent solo at the program.

Craig Myers also sang a beautiful solo.

Steve Houser played a drum solo.

A FIESTA

These Spanish Club members held a costume party.

Their sponsor, Mrs. Posey, also wore a costume.

Summer will soon be here and thoughts of the school year will quickly dissolve into warm, summer fun. Freshmen and seniors alike will dash out of their classrooms and head for home and new horizons. A few "good-bys" and some "see-ya-laters" will fill the air.

Most of the students will return again in three months, but for the seniors it will be the final chapter in a book which they will carry with them for the rest of their lives. As they cram lasting memories into a beat-up notebook and heave it into the back seat, their heads will slowly turn, a sudden quiet will prevail, and then, just as suddenly, will disappear into the roar of motors and frenzied confusion of joyous laughter.

But as they speed down life's highway, they will always remember and deeply cherish that eternal glimpse of a true friend, indeed, Eastside High School . . . united in every way!

A MESSAGE FROM THE EDITORS

The 1964 Easterner, the first annual of Eastside, is now completed. It has been a privilege to be the editors of this publication. It has been hard work, but it has also been fun, and we shall never forget the experiences associated with it. Looking back, it now seems that even the problems were enjoyable, in a way.

This yearbook, which had more than its share of problems because of the consolidation, could not have been produced without the help of many people who were willing to give both time and work in order to produce it. Miss Bowyer, our advisor, was very patient and helpful. Robert Sutula, our official photographer, was most co-operative and did an excellent job of photography. The typists spent many long hours after school, and without their help, there would be no annual. Mr. Myers kindly let us out of class for picture taking with the photographer. Athletic Director Jim Roush was very co-operative in arranging for sports pictures to be taken, and we know that the sports section of this book was greatly helped by him. Dave Fisher kept the financial end running smoothly with over eight hundred dollars worth of ads sold. However, the most important is you, the people who have bought this book.

As we have said before, it has been an enjoyable experience for us, and we hope you enjoy this annual through the years, as it brings back memories to you.

Sincerely yours,

Merle Ross Holden
Stephen Carroll Houser
Co-Editors of 1964
